

Linda R. Horn

Determined to inform and inspire in all she does, Linda Horn takes great pride in her work as a respected financial planner and small business owner. As CEO of Capital Concepts, Linda's professional knowledge and experience includes wealth management with a focus on tax efficient planning, asset protection (especially important in today's litigious society) and senior issues.

She is accredited as a Master Certified Estate Planner, a registered Financial Consultant, a Certified Senior Advisor and member of the Southwest Ohio Senior Alliance.

Though she's received a multitude of prestigious awards, Linda describes herself as a "small town girl with unlimited global thinking" and strives to apply that perspective while helping her clients plan financially for all of life's stages.

When she's not running one of Cincinnati's fastest growing wealth management companies, Linda is a mentor for women who want to startup their own businesses.

Linda's Awards and Honors include:

- Women Entrepreneur of the Year 1993 (WEI)
- Avon Women of Enterprise
- Pinnacle Award Fastest Growing Business
- Ernst & Young Emerging Entrepreneur of the Year 2001
- Athena Award Finalist 2009 (Cincy magazine)
- National Entrepreneurial Excellence Award (Working Woman)
- Cincinnati Magazine FIVE STAR Wealth ManagerSM for 2009 and 2010
